

A Missionary to the Mennonite People

My friends, there is no holding back that Elohim has sent me as a missionary to the Mennonite people. As a people well known for themselves sending missionaries far and wide, the time has come for the Mennonite Brethren to be on the receiving end of a call to repentance. It is astonishing even to me that those who truly believe that they are already saved and are genuinely convinced of their own right standing in the eyes of Elohim, are in urgent need of a spiritual awakening. However, the sincerity and profound good intentions of my Brethren cannot forever continue to be a sound barrier to the call for repentance. In this regard, the words of the Son of Elohim echo through the centuries, "It is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the reign of Elohim." Yet with Elohim all things are possible, and so I am sent to turn you back to the Elohim of Israel.

Most modern Mennonites are the descendants of Teutonic tribes that were evangelized after a fashion by Roman Catholic missionaries, and who until the time of the Reformation in the sixteenth century continued in the faith and worship of the Roman Catholic Church. The Roman Church had made the conversion process an easy one by allowing their converts to continue in their pagan practices by simply re-labeling such worship with Christian terminology. Hence ancient pagan deities such as Mithras, Astarte, Tammuz, Osiris and Apollo are imbedded in the faith and worship of the Roman Catholic Church and by extension in the religious customs of nearly all Christians today. History has shown, in hindsight, that the Reformation did not bring an end to the adaptation of pagan worship by the Catholic Church. The Reformers, without exception, continued on in the same practices as the Mother Church. The conclusion is the Mennonite people are not yet free of their Teutonic past and that the Protestant Reformation was woefully incomplete. No doubt you have heard it before, but your Christmas, Easter and Sun-Day worship services have their origins in paganism and all of them are related to Sun-worship. Brethren, it is my duty to tell you that each of you must come out of the Church system in it's entirety. There must be a complete break. This is the meaning of Revelation 18:4-5, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. Because her sins have piled up to reach the heaven, and Elohim has remembered her unrighteousness."

There is a Scripture verse in the book you know as 2 Chronicles that encapsulates much of what repentance requires. For if, "My people upon whom My Name is called, shall humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their evil ways, then I shall hear from the heavens, and forgive their sins and heal their land." (2 DIBRE haYAHIM 7:14). Here Elohim calls us "My people" and so we are. For although you can not believe it yet, we are Israel, the physical children of Abraham, and most likely from the tribes of Manasseh and Gad. We are the descendants of tribes which Elohim scattered among the gentiles throughout all the nations BECAUSE OF OUR IDOLATRY! It is nothing new that we continue, in our humanely sanitized fashion, to worship other gods.

It is our national characteristic to want to be like the nations and to worship as they do. Yet, Elohim is calling us back to Himself, to YHWH, the Elohim of Israel. Our Elohim identifies with us and even calls Himself after us...Israel. We need to humble ourselves because of His faithfulness throughout all our generations, but even before we turn from our sins, we need to turn back to Him. Turning back to our Father is the essence of repentance. Once we seek His face, our turning from sin will follow immediately. Once we know that we are Israel and the recipients of YHWH's eternal commandments, our obedience will follow. Furthermore, Elohim will heal our land. This healing is in anticipation to the great harvest or ingathering that is soon to come. For according to the Scriptures, YHWH is going to return a repentant Israel to the land that also bears His Name. This great event will prove to the nations that there is no other Elohim than YHWH, the Elohim of Israel. My friends, let us rend our hearts even before we change our behavior.

"Do not let this Book of the Torah depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you guard to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and act wisely." (Yehoshua 1:8). As a missionary to the Mennonite people, my call to repentance is threefold: repentance from idolatry, from lawlessness and from unbelief. It is Yeshua, the Son of Elohim, that gave us the instruction to keep His commandments. It is hardly painful for me to tell you that it is the idolatrous behavior the we have inherited from our pagan past and Mother Church that keeps us from hearing Yeshua's voice in the Law and the prophets. I say it to you freely and Elohim confirm it. I have confidence in Him for "this is My covenant with them, when I take away their sins." (Romans 11:27).

Shalom
